Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Honors MLK Celebration and a Call to Public Service

January 13, 2010 – (Raleigh, NC) The members of the Iota Iota Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated will honor the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday with a full day of reflection, participation and call to continued public service.

Ken Johnson, Basileus of the Chapter based in Raleigh, NC has issued a full charge to all members of the Fraternity to come out in large numbers to participate in this historical day of celebration to honor the gigantic legacy of the day's namesake. He stated, "Dr. King's legacy remains an important heartbeat of the historic evolution of social change, justice and equality. His tireless efforts have continuously empowered our African American community and the members of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated have pledged our commitment to uphold Omega's cardinal principles; manhood, scholarship, perseverance and uplift which serve as our guiding light for the communities in which we raise our families and work."

Members will begin the celebratory activities by participating in the 30th Annual Martin Luther King Triangle Interfaith Prayer Breakfast at 8:00 a.m. at the Sheraton Imperial Hotel at Research Triangle Park. The Omega men will continue at 11:00 a.m. with the 30th Annual MLK Memorial March and finish the day with a fraternal celebration of friendship and fellowship at the Pit Restaurant, downtown Raleigh.

The Fraternity is also excited to announce that they are the host Chapter for the 76th Grand Conclave that will be held in Raleigh, July 22-30, 2010; the largest convention to be held in the City. Thousands of members are expected to attend this national conference to conduct business and celebrate brotherhood.

Look for continued information on upcoming activities as they "Count Down to the Grand Conclave."
